October Dinner Meeting

Tuesday October 12, 2010

"The Music Industry: A Survival Guide for the Future"

The CCC has arranged a panel of visionary thinkers and entrepreneurs to discuss the evolving business landscape of the music industry, as well as strategies for the future. Challenges in the music business are immense, declining record sales and increased competition for placement in film, TV and video games are just two examples. The opportunities, however, are unprecedented. Music is being listened to more than ever before and the explosion of new technologies has created many excellent avenues to monetize music. Everyone involved with the music industry, from lawyers to performers and from managers to music publishers, are invited to join the CCC in a frank discussion of how to survive and even prosper as a music industry professional now and into the future.

Panelists:

- i Russell Emanuel, CEO, Extreme Music
- i Kari Kimmell, Recording Artist and Songwriter
- i Amanda Marks, EVP/GM, Universal Music Distribution
- i Victor Rodriguez, Music Director, THQ Inc.
- i Patrick Russo, Principal, The Salter Group

Moderators:

- i Shawn LeMone, VP of Film/TV and Visual Media, ASCAP
- i Diane Snyder-Ramirez, VP of Royalty Accounting & Administration, Royalty Review Council
